

Book Club: A folk tale and the first conditional

Lesson 2-3
Book pages 46-49

💡 Big idea: A folk tale is an old story that teaches important things. In The Best Animals on Earth, the platypus is special in her own way. We use the first conditional (If + present, will + verb) for things that might happen in the future.

🎯 I will learn:
- Read the folk tale The Best Animals on Earth
- Learn 12 animal verbs
- Use the first conditional

📖 Key words

folk tale حكاية شعبية	platypus خلد الماء (البلاتيبوس)	bite يعض	sting يلسع
roar يزأر	fight يقاتل	dive يغطس	hide يختبئ
lay eggs يضع البيض	curl up يلتف على نفسه	run away يهرب	die يموت

The Best Animals on Earth

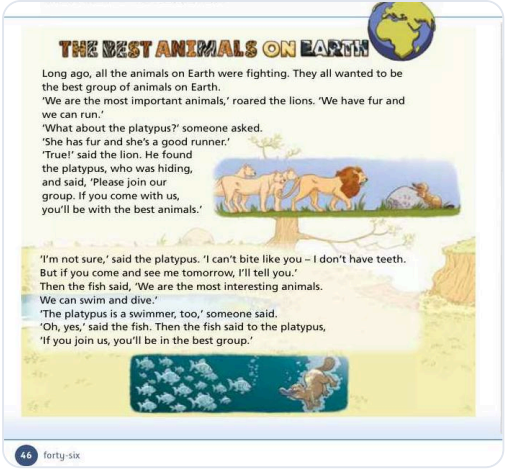

- Long ago, the animals were fighting to be the best group
- The lions said: We have fur and we can run.
- The fish said: We can swim and dive.
- The birds said: We have beaks and we lay eggs.
- The platypus has fur, swims, has a beak and lays eggs! Every group wanted her
- She said: If I join the lions, the birds won't be happy. I am special in my own way.
- Lesson: everyone is special in a different way

First conditional

- If + present simple, ... will / won't + verb
- If you come with us, you'll be with the best animals.
- If I don't join the fish, they'll be angry.
- If I join the lions, the birds won't be happy.
- We use it for something that might happen in the future

Animal verbs

- Lions roar and fight
- Bees sting
- Birds fly away and lay eggs
- Hedgehogs curl up when they are scared
- Rabbits dig and hide

THE BEST ANIMALS ON EARTH

Long ago, all the animals on Earth were fighting. They all wanted to be the best group of animals on Earth.
'We are the most important animals,' roared the lions. 'We have fur and we can run.'
'What about the platypus?' someone asked.
'She has fur and she's a good runner.'
'True!' said the lion. He found the platypus, who was hiding, and said, 'Please join our group. If you come with us, you'll be with the best animals.'

'I'm not sure,' said the platypus. 'I can't bite like you – I don't have teeth. But if you come and see me tomorrow, I'll tell you.'
Then the fish said, 'We are the most interesting animals. We can swim and dive.'
'The platypus is a swimmer, too,' someone said.
'Oh, yes,' said the fish. Then the fish said to the platypus, 'If you join us, you'll be in the best group.'

46 forty-six

Folk tale: The Best Animals on Earth (p.46)

Grammar

First conditional: If ..., ... will ...

If you come with us,	you'll be with the best animals.
If I don't join the fish,	they'll be angry.
If I join the lions,	the birds won't be happy.

- We use the first conditional to talk about something that might happen in the present / future.
- The if part of the sentence is in the present / future with will.
- The second part uses the present / future with will.

Grammar: the first conditional (p.49)

✏️ Examples

If we plant more flowers, ...

Answer: more bees will come.

If it rains, we / not go / to the park

Answer: If it rains, we won't go to the park.

What does a hedgehog do when it's scared?

Answer: It curls up.

⭐ Remember

- Don't use will in the if-part: ✓ If it rains ... (not If it will rain)
- You can swap the halves: The birds won't be happy if I join the lions.

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ If you will come, you will see. ✓ If you come, you will see.
- ✗ If I join, they angry. ✓ If I join, they'll be angry.

🧩 Activity: Continue the sentences: If we plant more flowers, ...

✅ Check yourself

1. What is a folk tale?
2. Which group did the platypus join?
3. Complete: If you wait, I ___ decide tomorrow.
4. What do bees do?

Answers: (1) an old story that teaches important things ، (2) no group, she is special in her own way ، (3) will ، (4) sting