Unit 2: Awesome animals

Culture, project and English in action: likes and dislikes

Lesson 2-4
Book pages 50-53

💡 Big idea: Many countries have national animals, like the Arabian oryx in Oman. We learn how to say what we like and don't like, and how to stress the right syllable in animal words.

🎯 I will learn:
- Read about three national animals
- Make a world map of national animals
- Say what I like and don't like
- Stress syllables correctly

📖 Key words

national animal الحيوان الوطني	Arabian oryx المها العربي	lemur الليمور	Komodo dragon تنين كومودو
venom سُم	in the wild في البرية	continent قارة	I'm crazy about أنا مولع بـ
I can't stand لا أطيق

National animals

- The Arabian oryx is the national animal of Oman. It has white fur and long horns
- Oryx eat grass and leaves and walk long distances in the desert. They get water from their food
- In the 1970s there were no more oryx in the wild, but now you can find them in Oman, Jordan, the UAE and Saudi Arabia
- Ring-tailed lemurs (Madagascar) have long striped tails and are good at climbing
- The Komodo dragon (Indonesia) is the largest lizard in the world. It has venom in its mouth

Saying what you like and don't like

- 😊😊 I'm crazy about ... / I find ... really interesting.
- 😊 I quite like ...
- 😐 I don't mind ...
- ☹️ I'm not keen on ...
- ☹️☹️ I don't like ... at all. / I can't stand ...

Project: a world map of national animals

- Choose a continent and find the national animals of two countries
- Write notes and add pictures
- Use but to show contrast: They are small, but they have very big ears!

Stressed syllables

- DOL-phin, gi-RAFFE, JEL-ly-fish, go-RIL-la, kan-ga-ROO, AL-li-ga-tor, ko-A-la, EL-e-phant

Culture: national animals (p.50)

Say it! Saying what you like and don't like (p.53)

✏️ Examples

Do you like spiders? (strong dislike)

Answer: No, I don't. I can't stand them!

Do you like sharks? (strong like)

Answer: Yes! I'm crazy about sharks.

⭐ Remember

- After like/love/can't stand, use a noun or verb-ing: I can't stand picking them up
- Use a dictionary to check how to say country names

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ I'm crazy for sharks. ✓ I'm crazy about sharks.
- ✗ I don't mind to watch them. ✓ I don't mind watching them.

🧩 Activity: Make a poster map of national animals in one continent
