

Unit 3: Travel

Book Club: A science fiction story and the present simple for the future

Lesson 3-3
Book pages 72-75

💡 Big idea: A science fiction story happens in the future in a world different from ours. In Are we nearly there yet?, Issa's family go on holiday to the Moon! We learn transport verbs and use the present simple for timetables.

🎯 I will learn:
- Read the science fiction story
- Learn travel verbs
- Use the present simple for timetables and fixed plans

📖 Key words

science fiction خيال علمي	rocket صاروخ	launch pad منصة الإطلاق	take off تُقلع
land تهبط	arrive يصل	leave يغادر	catch a bus يلحق بالحافلة
get on / get off يركب / ينزل	explore يستكشف	take a seat يجلس

Are we nearly there yet?

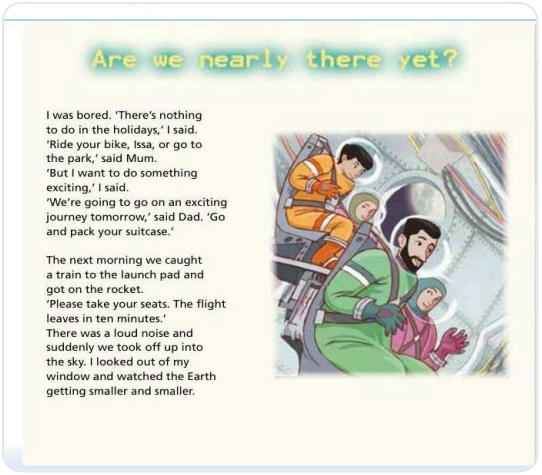

- Issa is bored in the holidays. Dad says: We're going to go on an exciting journey tomorrow
- They catch a train to the launch pad and get on a rocket
- Please take your seats. The flight leaves in ten minutes.
- They travel by Moon train to a space hotel and see Mars from the window
- The Moon walk was interesting, but the space suits were uncomfortable
- At the end Issa wants to ride his bike in the park at home!

Present simple for the future

- We use it for timetables and fixed plans
- The train leaves in 15 minutes.
- The flight lands at 6 o'clock.
- What time does the flight land?
- When do we arrive?

Travel verbs

- pack your suitcase → catch a bus → get on the plane → take a seat
- The plane takes off ... and lands
- We arrive, get off and explore the city

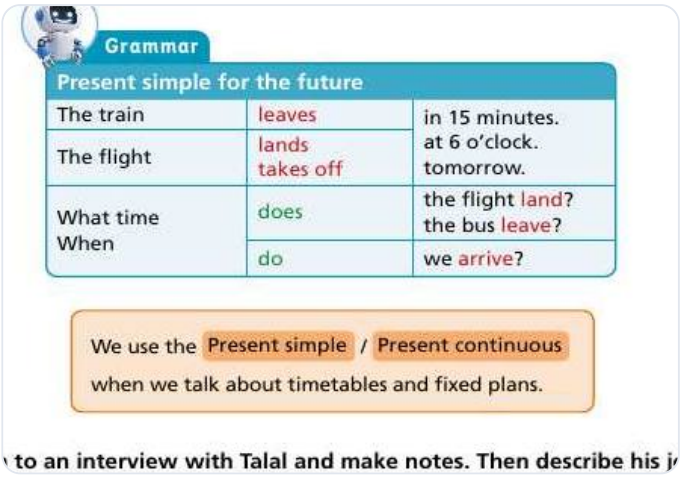

Are we nearly there yet?

I was bored. 'There's nothing to do in the holidays,' I said.
'Ride your bike, Issa, or go to the park,' said Mum.
'But I want to do something exciting,' I said.
'We're going to go on an exciting journey tomorrow,' said Dad. 'Go and pack your suitcase.'

The next morning we caught a train to the launch pad and got on the rocket.
'Please take your seats. The flight leaves in ten minutes.'
There was a loud noise and suddenly we took off up into the sky. I looked out of my window and watched the Earth getting smaller and smaller.

Book Club: Are we nearly there yet? (p.72)

Grammar

Present simple for the future

The train	leaves	in 15 minutes.
The flight	lands / takes off	at 6 o'clock. tomorrow.
What time / When	does	the flight land? / the bus leave?
	do	we arrive?

We use the Present simple / Present continuous when we talk about timetables and fixed plans.

to an interview with Talal and make notes. Then describe his j

Grammar: present simple for the future (p.75)

✏️ Examples

The bus / leave / at 8:15

Answer: The bus leaves at 8:15.

What time / the flight / land?

Answer: What time does the flight land?

⭐ Remember

- take off ↔️ land
- get on ↔️ get off
- leave ↔️ arrive (opposites)
- Timetable verbs need -s with he/she/it: the train leaves

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ The flight land at 6. ✓ The flight lands at 6.
- ✗ What time the bus leaves? ✓ What time does the bus leave?

🧩 Activity: Describe a journey timetable: I'm going to travel by bus to Salalah. The bus leaves at ...

✅ Check yourself

1. Where did Issa's family go on holiday?
2. Where did they stay?
3. Opposite of take off?
4. Complete: The train ___ (leave) in 15 minutes.

Answers: (1) to the Moon ، (2) in a space hotel ، (3) land ، (4) leaves