

Culture, project and English in action: feelings about the future

Lesson 3-4
Book pages 76-79

💡 Big idea: Read about two famous railways: the Haramain High-Speed railway and the Trans-Siberian railway. We learn to say how we feel about the future: I'm looking forward to ..., I can't wait ..., I'm worried about ....

🎯 I will learn:
- Read about famous railways
- Make a railway map project
- Say how I feel about the future
- Stress question words

Famous railways

- The Haramain High-Speed railway in Saudi Arabia runs between the holy cities of Makkah and Madinah and stops at Jeddah
- It travels at 300 km an hour along 450 km. It opened in 2018 and has more than 50 bridges
- It is designed to run in temperatures of 50°C
- The Trans-Siberian railway (Moscow to Vladivostok, Russia) is the longest railway in the world: more than 9,000 km
- You get on in Europe and off in Asia. You sleep on the train and pass Lake Baikal, the deepest lake in the world

Saying how you feel about the future

- 😊 I'm (really) looking forward to the summer holidays.
- 😊 I can't wait for the holidays! / I can't wait to go camping!
- 😊 I'm excited about camping.
- ☹️ I'm not looking forward to the long journey.
- ☹️ I'm worried about the journey.

Project: a railway map

- Choose a continent and a famous railway
- Find out how long the route is (km and hours), where it starts and finishes
- Find what you can see on the way and draw the route
- Use the abbreviation km/h for kilometres an hour

Culture: famous railways (p.76)

Say it! Saying how you feel about the future (p.79)

✏️ Examples

You love trains and you have a trip next week.

Answer: I'm really looking forward to my train trip!

You don't like long car journeys.

Answer: I'm worried about the long journey.

⭐ Remember

- After looking forward to, use a noun or -ing: I'm looking forward to seeing them
- Stress the question word: WHAT are you going to do?

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ I'm looking forward to see you. ✓ I'm looking forward to seeing you.
- ✗ I'm excited for camping. ✓ I'm excited about camping.

🧩 Activity: Make a railway map with notes about the route and present it
