Unit 3: Travel

Literacy: Reading and writing an email

Lesson 3-5
Book pages 80-81

💡 Big idea: A formal email has a To: line, a subject, starts with Dear ..., is divided into paragraphs and ends with Yours, (name). We read the head teacher's email about a school trip to Bahla.

🎯 I will learn:
- Read an email about a school trip
- Know how to write a formal email
- Write an email from a head teacher about a school trip

📖 Key words

email بريد إلكتروني	subject الموضوع	formal رسمي	informal غير رسمي
express (coach) (حافلة) سريعة	brand-new جديد تمامًا	UNESCO World Heritage site موقع تراث عالمي لليونسكو	souq سوق lucky محظوظ

School trip to Bahla

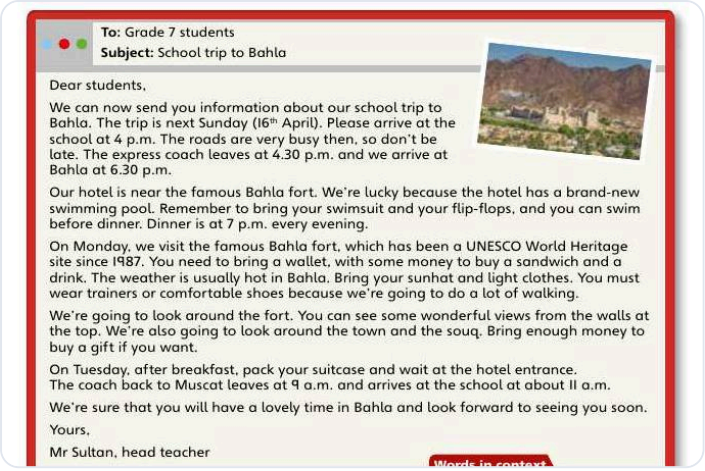

- To: Grade 7 students. Subject: School trip to Bahla
- The express coach leaves at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday. Arrive at school at 4 p.m.
- The hotel has a brand-new swimming pool. Dinner is at 7 p.m.
- On Monday they visit Bahla Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage site since 1987
- Bring a wallet, money, a sun hat and comfortable shoes
- On Tuesday the coach leaves at 9 a.m.
  From: Mr Sultan, head teacher

How to write an email

- Write who the email is to at the top
- Complete the subject box
- Start with Dear (name). In the first paragraph, say why you are writing
- Divide the email into paragraphs. You can add headings
- End correctly. Formal emails end with Yours, (name)

Formal or informal?

- Formal: Dear ... / We are now ready to send you information ... / We look forward to seeing you soon. / Yours,
- Informal: Hi ... / Here's some information ... / See you soon ... / From ...

To: Grade 7 students
Subject: School trip to Bahla

Dear students,

We can now send you information about our school trip to Bahla. The trip is next Sunday (16th April). Please arrive at the school at 4 p.m. The roads are very busy then, so don't be late. The express coach leaves at 4.30 p.m. and we arrive at Bahla at 6.30 p.m.

Our hotel is near the famous Bahla fort. We're lucky because the hotel has a brand-new swimming pool. Remember to bring your swimsuit and your flip-flops, and you can swim before dinner. Dinner is at 7 p.m. every evening.

On Monday, we visit the famous Bahla fort, which has been a UNESCO World Heritage site since 1987. You need to bring a wallet, with some money to buy a sandwich and a drink. The weather is usually hot in Bahla. Bring your sunhat and light clothes. You must wear trainers or comfortable shoes because we're going to do a lot of walking.

We're going to look around the fort. You can see some wonderful views from the walls at the top. We're also going to look around the town and the souq. Bring enough money to buy a gift if you want.

On Tuesday, after breakfast, pack your suitcase and wait at the hotel entrance. The coach back to Muscat leaves at 9 a.m. and arrives at the school at about 11 a.m.

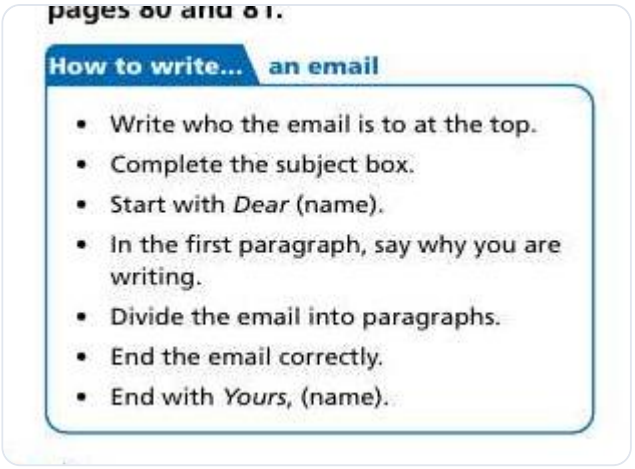

We're sure that you will have a lovely time in Bahla and look forward to seeing you soon.

Yours,

Mr Sultan, head teacher

Words in context

Email: School trip to Bahla (p.80)

pages 80 and 81.

How to write... an email

- Write who the email is to at the top.
- Complete the subject box.
- Start with Dear (name).
- In the first paragraph, say why you are writing.
- Divide the email into paragraphs.
- End the email correctly.
- End with Yours, (name).

How to write an email (p.81)

✏️ Examples

Start a formal email to students.

Answer: Dear students,

End a formal email.

Answer: Yours, Mr Sultan

⭐ Remember

- You don't need to look up every word in a dictionary. Not every word is important
- Use headings with days (Sunday, Monday ...) to organise a trip email

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ Hi students, ... Yours, Mr Sultan (mixed) ✓ Dear students, ... Yours, Mr Sultan
- ✗ Forgetting the subject ✓ Always complete the subject box

🧩 Activity: Write an email from a head teacher about an amazing school trip: plan, write, check and rewrite

✅ Check yourself

1. Where is the school trip?
2. What famous place will they visit?
3. How does a formal email end?
4. Who wrote the email?

Answers: (1) Bahla ، (2) Bahla Fort ، (3) Yours, (name) ، (4) Mr Sultan, the head teacher