The poem

- It has three verses with six sentences each
- The first and second lines and the third and fourth lines of each verse rhyme
- The speaker would go to the Arctic, walk on the Moon, visit Ancient Egypt and become Sherlock Holmes

Second conditional

- if + past simple, would + verb
- If I could travel back in time, I'd go to Ancient Egypt
- If I went into space, I'd walk on the Moon
- If you were rich, would you donate to a charity?
- Used for imaginary situations, not real ones

Grammar

Second conditional
If I could travel back in time, I'd go to Ancient Egypt.
If I went into space, I'd walk on the moon.
If you could become a film character, what character would you choose?
If you were rich, would you donate to a charity?

- We use the second conditional to talk about real / imaginary situations.
- We form the second conditional with if + Present simple / Past simple …, *would + verb.

Grammar table: second conditional
