Unit 4: Off to the shops

Asking for a price and corner shops

Lesson 4-3
Book pages 86-88

💡 Big idea: We ask about prices politely (How much is it? It's fifteen rials.), read about corner shops around the world, and make a TV advert for a shop.

🎯 I will learn:
- Ask to look at something in a shop
- Ask and answer about prices
- Read about corner shops around the world
- Write a short advert

📖 Key words

How much is it? بكم هذا؟	rial ريال	necklace عقد قلادة	window واجهة المحل
advert إعلان	present هدية	pleasure سرور	treasure كنز

Asking for a price

- Can I look at a necklace which is in the window, please?
- Sure. Which necklace would you like?
- How much is it? It's fifteen rials.
- Oh, I haven't got enough money. I've only got thirteen rials.
- I'll have that one, please. Thank you! My pleasure!

Corner shops

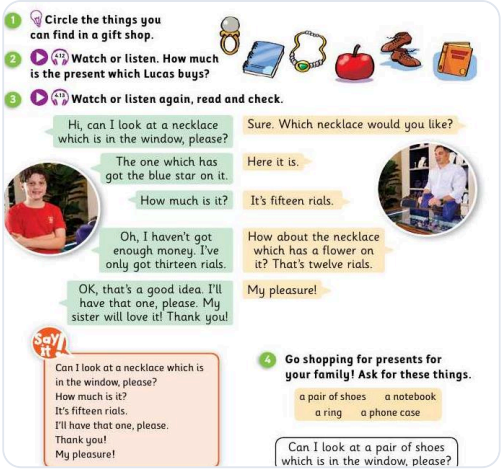

- Most corner shops sell sweets, food, drinks, newspapers and magazines.
- In the UK, corner shops also sell stamps and stationery.
- In New York, a corner shop is called a bodega. In Canada, it's a corner store.

TV advert phrases

- Come to our friendly shop, (name).
- You can buy ... and ... here.
- We also sell ...
- You will be happy that you came here!

Pronunciation /ʒ/

- pleasure, measure, unusual, treasure
- It is a pleasure, yes, such a pleasure, to measure this unusual treasure!

Dialogue: asking for a price in a gift shop

✏️ Examples

Ask the price

Answer: How much is it?

Answer: 15 rials

Answer: It's fifteen rials.

⭐ Remember

- Be polite in shops: please, thank you, my pleasure

⚠️ Watch out

- Say 'How much is it?', not 'How many is it?' for prices

🧩 Activity: Role-play buying a present in a gift shop with your partner
