Theme 1: Communication

Communication Skills

Lesson 1-4
Book pages 8-9

💡 Big idea: Good communication means talking and listening. A successful conversation needs interest, eye contact, turn-taking and follow-up questions.

🎯 I will learn:
- Analyse what makes a conversation successful
- Use everyday conversation phrases
- Practise conversational strategies

📖 Key words

relationship علاقة	express يعبّر	feelings مشاعر
pent-up مكبوت	take turns يتناوب	share يشارك

Why communicate?

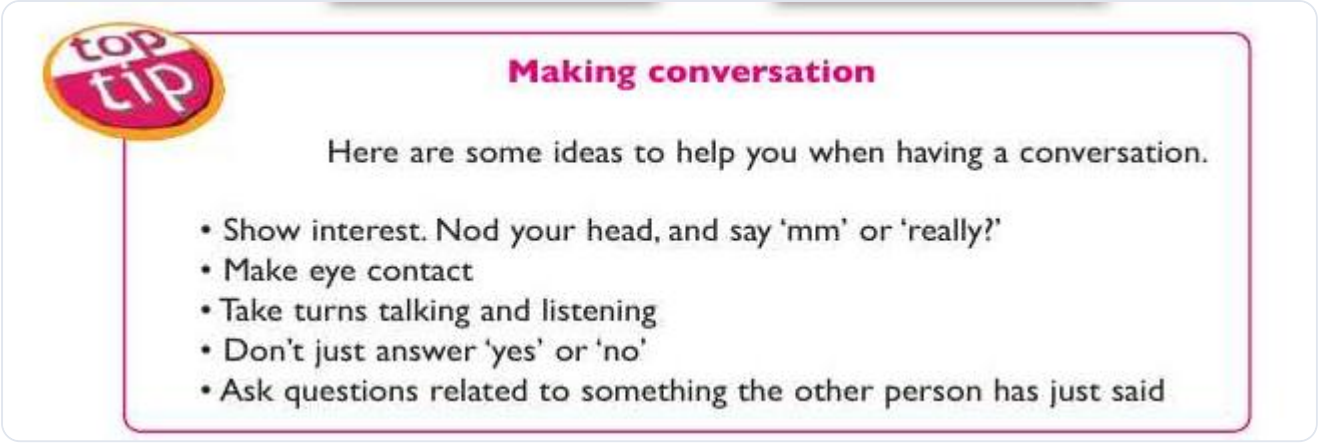

- To know what others want and how they feel
- Relationships are two-sided: each person must be heard
- Pent-up feelings can make you unhappy
- sharing a problem makes you feel better

Making conversation (top tip)

- Show interest: nod, say "mm" or "really?"
- Make eye contact
- Take turns talking and listening
- Don't just answer "yes" or "no"
- Ask questions about what the other person just said

Everyday phrases

- Hello, how are you? / Nice to see you!
- Really? That's interesting.
- I'm sorry to hear that.
- What do you think? / How about you?
- See you later!

Top tip: Making conversation (p.9)

✏️ Examples

Your friend says "I've lost my mobile phone." What do you say?

Answer: Oh no! I'm sorry to hear that. Where did you last see it?

⭐ Remember

- A good listener asks a question about what the speaker just said.

⚠️ Watch out

- Answering with only "yes" or "no". → Add information and ask a question back.

🧩 Activity: Act out a short conversation with a partner using five phrases from the lesson.

✅ Check yourself

1. Name two conversation strategies
2. What does "pent-up" mean?
3. Respond to good news

Answers: (1) Eye contact and taking turns ، (2) Kept inside, not expressed ، (3) That's interesting! / How exciting!
