Expressing the future

- will: predictions (Perhaps people won't send letters.)
- will: offers and promises (I'll help you.)
- will: decisions made now (I'll have the blue one.)
- going to: plans and intentions (I'm going to watch TV.)
- present continuous: arrangements (I'm meeting my brother tomorrow.)

The trip

- Bus from Dubai through Al Ain / Buraimi, Nizwa, Haima, Thumrait to Salalah
- Or a two-hour flight over the Hajar Mountains and the Empty Quarter

GRAMMAR RECALL Expressing the Future

Read the sentences on the left and match them to a usage on the right.

1 I'm meeting my brother for lunch tomorrow.
2 Do you think England will win the World Cup next year?
3 I'm going to watch TV then go to bed.
4 Perhaps people won't send letters in the future, only e-mails.
5 Which pen do you want? I'll have the blue one.
6 I'll help you do your homework.

a Use will/will not (won't) for expressing prediction.
b Use will/will not (won't) for expressing offers and promises.
c Use will/will not (won't) for expressing decisions that are made at the moment.
d Use 'going to' for talking about future plans and intentions.
e Use the present continuous for talking about arrangements in the future.

4 Read the sentences a – i in Activity 3 again. Find three sentences which show different ways of expressing the future. Then read the sentences below and choose the best

✏️ Examples

Choose: Look at those clouds! It (will / is going to) rain.

Answer: is going to (prediction from evidence)

⭐ Remember

- Instant decision → will
- plan already made → going to
- fixed arrangement → present continuous

⚠️ Watch out

- "I will meet my friend tomorrow at 5
- we arranged it." → Better: "I'm meeting my friend tomorrow at 5."

🧩 Activity: List ten things to do before a holiday and say when you are going to do them.
