E-Shopping and a Complaint E-mail

Lesson 4-5
Book pages 58-59

💡 Big idea: Buying online is easy but has risks. We read terms and conditions of an online DVD club and write a formal e-mail of complaint.

🎯 I will learn:
- Consider e-shopping and its disadvantages
- Read and discuss terms and conditions
- Write an e-mail of complaint

📖 Key words

terms and conditions الشروط والأحكام	membership عضوية	dissatisfied غير راضٍ	faulty معيب
complain يشتكي	refund استرداد المال	Yours faithfully وتفضلوا بقبول فائق الاحترام

E-shopping risks

- You can't see or touch the product
- Wrong size or faulty items
- Paying online safely
- never share your password

Subject: DVD order ZS8457201

Dear Sir or Madam: 6 August 2011

I am writing to inform you that I am dissatisfied with the service I received on my July DVD order (#ZS8457201).

I ordered three DVDs, including the recommended DVD for March. I did not want the recommended DVD but I had to order it because of the membership conditions. After I received the DVDs, I followed the membership conditions and waited three months to pay. Then I received a bill for an additional 10 percent of the price listed on your website. I also did not like two of the DVDs and think you should only sell DVDs that most people like. I have watched all the DVDs and asked to return them, but the woman on the phone said that would not be possible. I did not know this.

I would still like to return the DVDs and I do not want to pay the extra 10 percent.

Please reply to me as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully,
Helen Brown

Now look at the terms and conditions for membership in Activity 2 on page 58 of your Coursebook. Who is wrong, the company or the customer?

✏️ Examples

Start a complaint about a late order.

Answer: Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to complain that the book I ordered two weeks ago has not arrived.

⭐ Remember

- Stay polite and clear, even when you are angry.

⚠️ Watch out

- Ending "Dear Sir or Madam" with "Love". → Use "Yours faithfully".
