Theme 1: Retail Therapy

Adverts: Appealing or Appalling? (Writing an evaluation)

Lesson 1-5
Book pages 10-11

💡 Big idea: Advertising aims to inform, persuade, compare or entertain. Good adverts use catchy slogans and attractive adjectives. We learn the language of advertisements and write an evaluative essay about an advert.

🎯 I will learn:
- Identify the purpose of advertising
- Understand slogans
- Match descriptive adjectives to products
- Write an evaluation of an advertisement

📖 Key words

appealing جذاب	appalling مروع / سيئ جدًا	slogan شعار دعائي	persuade يُقنع misleading مضلل	fragrant عطِر	long-lasting يدوم طويلًا	cost-saving موفر
luxurious فاخر	nutritious مغذٍّ

The purpose of advertising

- to inform
- to persuade
- to compare
- to entertain
- A good slogan is short and memorable (e.g. BMW: The Ultimate Driving Machine)

Advertising adjectives

- food: tasty, delicious, nutritious
- perfume: fragrant, luxurious
- shoes and clothes: comfortable, stylish, fashionable, cool
- car: powerful, fast, smooth, safe
- general: long-lasting, cost-saving

Writing an evaluation

- Introduce the advert (product, where you saw it)
- Describe the picture, slogan and language
- Say what is good and what is weak
- Give your final opinion: appealing or appalling?
- Adverts can be misleading if they hide information

Look at the eight photos of products. Which words might be used to advertise each product? Make a list of the products in your exercise book and match the words to the products.

Note: Some words can be used for more than one product.

1. tasty	5. nutritious	9. powerful	13. refreshing
2. fragrant	6. stylish	10. fashionable	14. luxurious
3. comfortable	7. long-lasting	11. delicious	15. cost-saving
4. fast	8. cool	12. smooth	16. safe

Adjectives used in advertising (p.11)

✏️ Examples

Which adjectives suit a perfume advert?

Answer: fragrant, luxurious, long-lasting

Is this slogan effective? 'Simply the best taste in Oman'

Answer: Yes, it is short, positive and easy to remember.

⭐ Remember

- Organise an evaluation: introduction → strengths → weaknesses → conclusion with your opinion.

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ The advert is very appalling, I like it. ✓ 'Appalling' is negative
- use 'appealing' for positive.

🧩 Activity: Choose an advert from a magazine and write an evaluation (120-150 words): is it appealing or appalling?
