Theme 4: Travel and Transport

Jobs in Airports and Aviation (Asking for explanations)

Lesson 4-4
Book pages 56-57

💡 Big idea: There are many jobs at airports: airport manager, engineer, security, check-in agent, air traffic controller and more. We listen to Tariq, an air traffic controller at Muscat International Airport, and learn to ask for and give explanations.

🎯 I will learn:
- Match airport jobs with responsibilities
- Listen for specific information
- Ask for explanations
- Give explanations clearly

📖 Key words

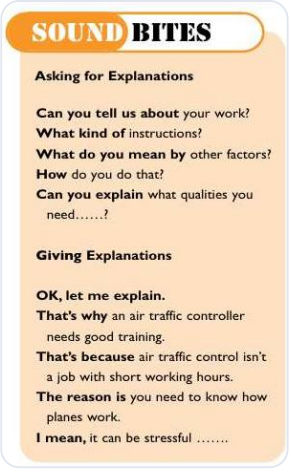

air traffic controller مراقب الحركة الجوية	check-in agent موظف تسجيل الركاب	baggage handler عامل الأمتعة	security personnel موظفو الأمن
runway مدرج الطائرات	emergency services خدمات الطوارئ	rewarding مُجزٍ	mechanic ميكانيكي

Airport jobs

- airport manager: overall responsibility for running the airport
- air traffic controller: gives instructions and directions to pilots
- check-in agent: helps passengers check in and answers questions
- baggage handler: weighs and transports luggage
- security personnel: monitor cameras and maintain order
- emergency services: firefighters, medical staff and police
- mechanic: carries out repairs and makes sure machines are safe

Soundbites: explanations

- Asking: Can you tell us about...? / What kind of...? / What do you mean by...? / How do you do that? / Can you explain...?
- Giving: OK, let me explain. / That's why... / That's because... / The reason is... / I mean, ...

SOUND BITES

Asking for Explanations

Can you tell us about your work?
What kind of instructions?
What do you mean by other factors?
How do you do that?
Can you explain what qualities you need.....?

Giving Explanations

OK, let me explain.
That's why an air traffic controller needs good training.
That's because air traffic control isn't a job with short working hours.
The reason is you need to know how planes work.
I mean, it can be stressful .....

Soundbites: asking for and giving explanations (p.57)

✏️ Examples

Ask about someone's job.

Answer: Can you tell us about your work?

Explain why air traffic controllers need training.

Answer: That's because they are responsible for the safety of many planes.

⭐ Remember

- Use 'That's because...' or 'The reason is...' to give clear explanations.

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ Can you explain me the rules? ✓ Can you explain the rules to me?

🧩 Activity: Student A asks about car parts (mirror, indicator, number plate)
