Unit 1: New Media

Writing: A summary of two pie charts

Lesson 1-4
Book pages 8-9

💡 Big idea: We learn to describe charts and write a summary comparing two pie charts about social media use by men and women. A good summary has an introduction, the highest and lowest data, comparisons, and a conclusion, without personal opinion.

🎯 I will learn:

- Name different types of charts
- Understand the structure of a chart summary
- Use comparative language and linking words
- Write a summary comparing two pie charts

📖 Key words

pie chart مخطط دائري	column chart مخطط أعمدة	line graph رسم بياني خطي	bar chart مخطط شريطي illustrate يوضح	overall بشكل عام	in contrast على النقيض	whereas بينما
significant ملحوظ / مهم	proportion نسبة

Types of charts

- Column chart = vertical columns
- Line graph = a line that shows change over time
- Bar chart = horizontal bars
- Pie chart = a circle divided into parts (percentages)

Structure of a summary

- Introduction: what the charts show (The two pie charts illustrate ...)
- Highest proportion: Facebook is the most popular for both genders
- Lowest proportion: WhatsApp is the least popular
- Comparison: the most significant difference is ...
- Conclusion: Overall, ...

Useful words

- illustrate = show
- overall = in general
- in contrast = on the other hand
- whereas = while
- main = most significant
- Write in the present tense and do not add your opinion

A model summary of two pie charts

✏️ Examples

Start a summary: two pie charts about social media in 2018

Answer: The two pie charts illustrate the social media platforms used by men and women in the USA in 2018.

Compare: Twitter 9% women, 22% men

Answer: Only 9% of women use Twitter, whereas 22% of men use it.

Replace the bold word: "Overall, use is similar."

Answer: In general, use is similar.

⭐ Remember

- Plan: intro → highest → lowest → comparisons → conclusion
- Use numbers from the chart to support every point

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ I think Facebook is the best. (opinion in a summary) ✓ Facebook is the most popular platform.
- ✗ The chart illustrate ✓ The chart illustrates

🧩 Activity: Find a simple chart in a newspaper and write a five-sentence summary
