Writing: A request email

💡 Big idea: We read Mazin's formal email asking to visit the Mir'aah site for a college report, and learn the structure of a request email: polite greeting, opening sentence, introduction, the request with details, closing comment and polite closing.

🎯 I will learn:
- Identify the purpose of an email
- Recognise formal and informal language
- Match parts of an email to their functions
- Write a polite request email

📖 Key words

request طلب	formal رسمي	informal غير رسمي	polite مهذب
assignment مهمة / واجب	site موقع	appreciated مُقدَّر	Kind regards مع أطيب التحيات

Mazin's email

- To Mr Brown at Mir'aah, subject: Visit request
- Mazin is a third-year Engineering student at the Science and Technology College
- His team is writing a report about a sustainable project in Oman
- They want to learn how the plant works and its environmental benefits, and take photos

Structure of a request email

- Polite greeting: Dear Mr Brown,
- Polite opening sentence: I hope that you are very well.
- Introduce yourself: My name is ...
- The request: I am writing to request a visit to ...
- Closing comment: Any help you can provide will be greatly appreciated.
- Polite closing: Kind regards,

Formal vs informal

- Formal: Dear Mr Brown / Kind regards / I would like to ...
- Informal: Hi Bill / Thanks / Take care
- Use would like and whether to sound polite: I am writing to ask whether it would be possible ...

Mazin's request email

✏️ Examples

Make it polite: "I want to visit your company."

Answer: I would like to visit your company.

Order the words: help me / if / to ask / I am writing / with / you / would / my project / be able to Answer: I am writing to ask if you would be able to help me with my project.

Which part is "Kind regards"?

Answer: A polite closing

⭐ Remember

- Formal emails: no short forms (I'm → I am), no slang
- State the request clearly in the second or third paragraph

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ Hi Mr Brown, thanks! ✓ Dear Mr Brown, ... Kind regards
- ✗ I am writing for request ✓ I am writing to request

🧩 Activity: Write a formal email to a company asking to visit for a school project

✅ Check yourself

1. Purpose of Mazin's email?
2. Polite greeting?
3. When do they want to visit?

Answers: (1) to make a request ، (2) Dear Mr Brown ، (3) at the start of next month