Unit 1: Identity

Vocabulary: Personality adjectives

Lesson 1-3
Book pages 17

💡 Big idea: We learn personality adjectives to describe people (clever, confident, funny, shy ...) and adjective + preposition collocations like interested in, afraid of, good at.

🎯 I will learn:

- Describe people with personality adjectives
- Use adjective + preposition collocations
- Complete a multiple-choice cloze text
- Ask friends questions using collocations

📖 Key words

clever ذكي	confident واثق بنفسه	funny مضحك	sociable اجتماعي
sporty رياضي	lazy كسول	unpleasant غير لطيف	noisy مزعج / صاخب
rude وقح / غير مهذب	calm هادئ	serious جاد	shy خجول

Personality adjectives

- Someone who enjoys spending time with other people is sociable
- Someone who makes people laugh is funny
- Someone who is intelligent is clever
- Someone who is nervous with people they don't know is shy
- Someone who is relaxed and not angry is calm
- Someone who doesn't like working is lazy

Adjective + preposition

- good / brilliant at
- bad / terrible at
- bored / fed up with
- excited about
- interested in
- afraid / frightened of
- keen on

Grammar note

- We use adjective + preposition + noun: She's interested in languages.
- We can use an -ing form as a noun: Frank's brilliant at cooking.

How our personality develops

- From about thirteen we notice how we behave in different situations
- We become more serious about our work and study
- Friends affect our behaviour, but we stay the same and choose friends who are like us
