Unit 1: Identity

Writing: An email about yourself

Lesson 1-5
Book pages 20-21

💡 Big idea: We read Rahaf's email to a TV programme called Tell us about you! and write our own email. We learn to make adjectives stronger or less strong with quite and very, and to join ideas with and, but, or, because, so.

🎯 I will learn:
- Plan an email using notes
- Organise my email into paragraphs
- Use quite and very correctly
- Write an email of about 100 words

📖 Key words

advert إعلان	programme برنامج	typical نموذجي / عادي	lifestyle نمط الحياة
remote بعيد / نائي	keen on مولع بـ	can't stand لا يطيق	quite إلى حد ما
very جدًا

Rahaf's email

- Paragraph 1: tell them about yourself – I'm Rahaf, I'm fourteen and I come from Oman, from the village of Misfat Al Abryeen
- Paragraph 2: your personality – some people think I'm quiet, but I'm actually quite sociable
- Paragraph 3: what you enjoy – I love living in my village and I love hiking
- Paragraph 4: why they should choose you – I'm a typical teenager but I live in an amazing place quite and very

- very makes an adjective stronger: He's very funny.
- quite makes an adjective less strong: I'm quite lazy.
- Article: very goes after a/an: It's a very good film. quite goes before a/an: It was quite an interesting story.
- Not with extreme adjectives: ✗ very terrified ✓ I was terrified!

Study tip: an email

- Write about all the content points
- Say what you like and why
- Give extra information about each point
- Check your notes: did you include all the points?

Improve it

- Did your partner write about all four points?
- Does each point have extra information?
- Did your partner use quite and very?

Rahaf's email and the language box: quite and very

✏️ Examples

Join the sentences: I like judo. I don't enjoy playing tennis.

Answer: I like judo, but I don't enjoy playing tennis.

Correct: It was a quite interesting story.

Answer: It was quite an interesting story.

⭐ Remember

- Plan → write → check. Use one paragraph for each point.
- Water flows underground in some mountain areas in Oman, just by gravity! (aflaj)

⚠️ Watch out

- ✗ I was very furious. ✓ I was furious.
- ✗ It's very a good film. ✓ It's a very good film.

🧩 Activity: Write your email to Tell us about you! in about 100 words

✅ Check yourself

1. Which word makes an adjective stronger?
2. Where does quite go with a/an?
3. How many words should the email be?

Answers: (1) very ، (2) before a/an ، (3) about 100
