Unit 2: Connections

Listening & Speaking: Communicating with animals and describing a photo

Lesson 2-4
Book pages 30-31

💡 Big idea: We listen to a talk about how humans and animals communicate, and learn the -ing form as a subject or after prepositions. In speaking, we describe a photo for one minute: introduce it, describe the place, the people and what they are doing.

🎯 I will learn:
- Predict information before listening
- Complete sentences and notes while listening
- Use the -ing form correctly
- Describe a photo for one minute

📖 Key words

communicate يتواصل	behave يتصرف	scientist عالِم	sound صوت
whale حوت	dolphin دلفين	horse حصان	describe يصف
scene مشهد

Animal communication

- In the USA, Monty Roberts watched the way horses behaved
- In Brazil, dolphins chase fish towards the fishermen
- Experts in some African countries use sounds to keep elephants away from villages
- Scientists hope AI can help us understand animal sounds, like the sperm whale's alphabet

The -ing form

- As the subject of a sentence: Copying this allowed Monty to communicate with young horses.
- After prepositions: Many cases rely on treating the animals with respect.

Study tip: sentence or note completion

- Read the sentences before you listen
- Predict the kind of word missing: a place, a number, a thing?
- Write one or two words or a number
