Writing: A story

💡 Big idea: We write a story of about 100 words. We use the past simple for the main events and the past continuous for the background, and we make our writing interesting with strong adjectives and adverbs.

🎯 I will learn:

- Plan a story: when, where, who, what happened
- Use past simple and past continuous in a story
- Use strong adjectives and adverbs
- Write and improve a 100-word story

📖 Key words

awful فظيع	brilliant رائع	delicious لذيذ	disgusting مقرف
fantastic رائع	hilarious مضحك جدًا	huge ضخم	miserable تعيس
terrible سيئ جدًا	wonderful رائع

Strong adjectives

- awful, brilliant, delicious, disgusting, fantastic, hilarious, huge, miserable, terrible, wonderful
- We use them to make writing more interesting
- We can use an adverb to make an adjective stronger: really good, very exciting, extremely dangerous

Adverbs with strong adjectives

- We don't use very or extremely with strong adjectives
- We use absolutely: ✗ very fantastic ✓ absolutely fantastic
- ✗ extremely brilliant ✓ absolutely brilliant

Study tip: a story

- First think of an idea that could follow the sentence in the task
- Plan it: When? Where? Who? What happened in the end?
- Plan the tenses you can use

Plan and write

- Your story must begin with this sentence: I looked around and thought: 'I have to take a photo and show it to my friends.'
- Answer: Where did it happen? Who was there? What was the main action? What happened in the end?
- Write about 100 words

8 Read the language box. Then find strong adjectives and adverbs in the story in Ex 7.
