Unit 3: The future is now

Listening & Speaking: Technology, advice and opinions

Lesson 3-4
Book pages 42-43

💡 Big idea: We listen to people discussing technology and choose the right pictures. We learn to give advice and suggestions (should, ought to, why don't you ...?). In speaking, we give and ask for opinions and agree or disagree about AI robots.

🎯 I will learn:

- Predict before a picture multiple-choice task
- Give advice with should and ought to
- Make suggestions and offers
- Give opinions, agree and disagree politely

📖 Key words

advice نصيحة	suggestion اقتراح	tablet جهاز لوحي	review مراجعة / تقييم
robot روبوت	assistant مساعد	household منزلي	chore عمل منزلي

Advice

- should / ought to + infinitive: What should I buy? You should get that new fitness app. You ought to look for it properly.

Suggestions and offers

- Why don't you / we + infinitive: Why don't you get a tablet?
- How about + noun / -ing: How about making a toasted sandwich?
- We could + infinitive: We could make an omelette.
- Offers and suggestions with shall: Shall I ask him? Shall we go for the pizza?

Opinions, agreeing and disagreeing

- Giving opinions: I think (that) ...
- Asking: What do you think?
- Agreeing: I agree. That's right.
- Disagreeing: I don't agree. OK, but ...

Study tip: collaborative task

- Listen carefully to what your partner says and respond before you give your own ideas
- Use different phrases for opinions
- The first industrial robot was created in the 1950s and was called Unimate
