Unit 3: The future is now

Writing: An email giving advice

Lesson 3-5
Book pages 44-45

💡 Big idea: For Teen Tech Help Month, teenagers help adults in the community with technology. We read Arwa's email and Jood's reply, then write an email reply of about 100 words giving advice and suggestions.

🎯 I will learn:

- Read an email and the notes about it
- Organise a reply into paragraphs
- Use different phrases for advice and suggestions
- Write and improve an email of about 100 words

📖 Key words

community مجتمع	workshop ورشة عمل	recycle يعيد التدوير	local business عمل تجاري محلي
project مشروع	reply رد	formal رسمي	informal غير رسمي

Teen Tech Help Month

- Teenagers often have better technology skills than adults
- Ideas: organise workshops to teach basic tech skills to older adults
- Offer to help a local business go digital
- Plan events to collect old devices and take them for recycling

Jood's reply

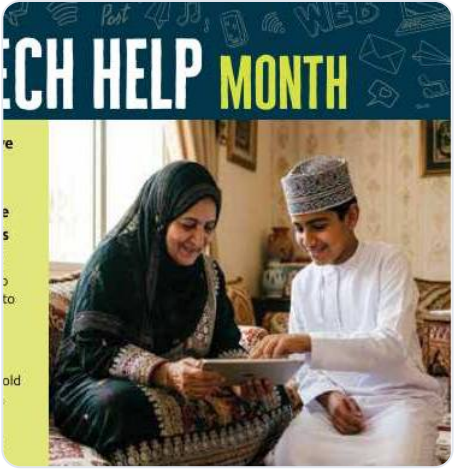

- Say you're sorry: Sorry to hear you were ill. I hope you're feeling better now.
- Say which one: I think you ought to help a local business go digital.
- Suggest ideas: How about helping them set up an online ordering system?
- Tell Arwa: I'm going to help with a project to collect old devices because I feel we should recycle old phones.

Study tip: an email

- Use a variety of appropriate phrases in your email, e.g. phrases for giving advice or making suggestions
- Avoid repeating the same one(s)
- Include all the information in the notes
- Use one paragraph for each point

Improve it

- Does it include all the information in the notes?
- Did you organise your ideas clearly into paragraphs?
- Did you use a variety of phrases for advice and suggestions?
- Check grammar, spelling and punctuation

✏️ Examples

Start a reply to a friend who was ill.

Answer: Hi Khalid, Sorry to hear you were ill. I hope you're feeling better now.

Give advice with a different phrase: You should ...

Answer: You could ... / Why don't you ...? / How about ...?

⭐ Remember

- Experience is one thing you can't get for nothing.
- An informal email: Hi + name, short sentences, friendly ending.

⚠️ Watch out

- Repeating 'You should' in every sentence. Use different phrases.
- Forgetting one of the points in the notes.

🧩 Activity: Write your reply to Khalid in about 100 words, including all the information in the notes
